

2013年6月大学英语六级真题答案与解析 (第1套)

说明：本次考试为“多题多卷”，公开答案区分第1/2/3套。本文件为第1套。写作题目三套相同，范文通用；听写、仔细阅读、完形按本套给出。快速阅读、翻译部分来源以第1套卷一版本收录，其余卷详见各来源。

一、写作 (Part I Writing)

题目：For this part, you are allowed 30 minutes to write an essay commenting on the remark "A smile is the shortest distance between two people". You may cite some examples to support your view. You should write at least 150 words but no more than 200 words.

范文

A smile, as the proverb has it, is the shortest distance between two people. In other words, a smile could serve as a bridge to connect two people and shorten the distance between two hearts. Simple as the remark may sound, it conveys a thought-provoking notion that we should always be friendly and polite to other people.

First and foremost, a smile proves to be the most effective way to break the ice between two strangers. In addition, being warm-hearted and friendly could promote mutual understanding and friendship. Those who always wear a warm smile are sure to be more popular than those who treat others with coldness and indifference. Zhu Dan is a case in point. She is said to practice smiling in front of the mirror for hours every day before walking up onto the stage. Finally, she becomes one of the most famous hostesses in China.

To conclude, nothing can be more effective than a warm smile in bringing people closer. Hence, it is advisable for people to open their mind and treat others with sincerity and warmth. Only in this way can we win more friends.
